CITY OF EVERETT RECEIVES HEALTHY SUMMER YOUTH JOBS GRANT

Mayor Carlo DeMaria is pleased to announce that the Attorney General's Office has chosen the City of Everett as a recipient for the Healthy Summer Youth Jobs Grant Program. The City will receive a grant up to $3,520.

Mayor DeMaria stated, "I want to thank Attorney General Maura Healey for her help in ensuring that our kids have a job this summer. This year we will once again be employing hundreds of teenagers, providing them with valuable work experience."

Massachusetts Attorney General Maura Healey stated, "The Attorney General's Office is honored to partner with the City of Everett to help fulfill the grants mission of providing additional healthy summer jobs to youth. I thank you for your work and we look forward to working with you on this vital effort."

Healthy Summer Youth Jobs is designed to directly benefit communities by providing jobs, and by addressing leading contributors to chronic disease by promoting increased health/wellness/disease prevention activities for the employed youth and/or the populations they will serve.
