CITY OF EVERETT TO HOST OUTDOOR FAMILY MOVIE NIGHT ON AUG. 4TH

Mayor Carlo DeMaria is happy to announce that on Friday, August 4th the City of Everett will be hosting a family movie night at Everett Memorial Stadium at 7:00PM. The featured movie will be The Lego Batman Movie.

The movie will begin at approximately 8:30PM, but attendees are encouraged to come at 7:00PM and enjoy pre movie entertainment with Bonaparte the Magician and Batman along with ice cream provided by the RCN ice cream truck. The City will also provide popcorn and water, so bring a blanket, chairs, bug spray and even a picnic basket and enjoy a movie under the stars with Mayor DeMaria and the City of Everett.

Mayor DeMaria stated, "I invite everyone to come down and enjoy movie night at Everett Memorial Stadium. It promises to be a great time and I hope all our young people can come down and enjoy our first family movie night of the season under the stars."

In case of inclement weather, the movie will be moved inside to the Connolly Center, 90 Chelsea Street.
