MAYOR DEMARIA AND EPD CELEBRATE RETIRING K9 DOG “HART”

Mayor Carlo DeMaria and the Everett Police Department recently honored retiring City of Everett canine, Hart, for his service and dedication to the City. Hart has served for seven (7) years with Officer Chris Hannon as a Detection Dog for explosive devices. During his time, Warner successfully contributed in locating and apprehending people involved in criminal activity and aided in the location of evidence at numerous crime scenes.

Mayor DeMaria stated, “Hart’s expertise in explosive and firearm detection has enhanced the City’s ability to serve and protect, especially during the Boston Marathon bombings and the events that followed in Watertown. His dedication and service to our community is greatly appreciated. May he enjoy his well-deserved retirement years.”

Hart will live out his retirement with Officer Hannon and his family.
