THE EVERETT PUBLIC LIBRARIES TO KICKOFF THE 18 IN'18 CHALLENGE

Last year, the Everett Public Libraries challenged the citizens of Everett to read 17 books in the year 2017. So many participated! They enjoyed meeting and listening to guest authors and buying signed books. The program was so successful that they are challenging you again! Read 18 books in the year 2018! On Wednesday, January 10th at 7:00 pm, they offer Judge Michel Ponsor, author of The Hanging Judge and The One-Eyed Judge. If you like fast paced judicial thrillers that reflect the legal challenges of the world today, these books are for you. If you haven't read them, look to Overdrive or Libby for eBooks, or bring your library card to the Shute or Parlin Libraries! Light refreshments will be served thanks to the generosity of the Friends of the Everett Public Libraries. The Parlin Library is located at 410 Broadway in Everett. For more information, call the Parlin Information Desk at (617) 394 2300.
