

Signs of Addiction

- Loss of interest in personal appearance & hygiene
- Mood changes & angry outbursts
- Anxiety, sudden weight loss
- Dry mouth, dark circles under eyes
- Needle marks, slurred speech
- Missing or bent spoons, valuables
- Empty pens, Q-tips rolled dollar bills, tin foil with burn marks
- Missing shoelaces
- Belts with teeth marks

Signs of an Overdose

- Very limp body and very pale face
- Blue lips or blue fingertips
- Slow breathing or no breathing
- Not waking up when you yell their name or firmly rub their chest
- Heavy nodding; losing consciousness
- Choking sounds or gurgling

Narcan is a prescription medicine that reverses an opioid overdose. Walgreens • Rite Aid • Cambridge Needle Exchange (617-599-0246) Learn to Cope (www.Learn2Cope.org) & North Suffolk Mental Health in Revere are a few available locations where you can find Narcan in and around Everett.*

*Everett Overcoming Addiction is a community group working to address the crisis locally, and may be reached at EverettOvercomingAddiction@gmail.com or through Facebook at facebook.com/EverettOvercomingAddiction