

City of Everett Water & Sewer

- If water service line is greater than 1" The property owner is responsible the whole water line from City Main to inside the property
- All fire services are the responsibility of the property owner from the city main to inside the property. Including all valves and fittings

