In the absence of the chair, the next named members of the committee present shall serve as chairman. The Clerk of Committees, in conjunction with the chair of a committee, shall schedule committee meetings, in accordance with all applicable rules and regulations, either at their discretion or upon the written demand of a majority of their committee members. A quorum for a committee meeting shall consist of a majority of the entire membership of that committee, which is three members. If necessary, the president's attendance at a committee meeting, as an ex-officio member, can be utilized to establish and/or maintain a quorum. In such an event, the president shall have all voting and debating rights afforded to a committee member.
